Wildlife Asso. Meeting Set for Tonight

The regular meeting of the Hempstead County Wildlife Assn. will be held tonight at 7:30 in the courtroom of the county court-house.

An interesting meeting is expected as Dorsey McRae takes over as president and he has a number of important items to discuss and resolutions to propose for passage.

It is reported that there is a large number of wolves in the DeAnn area. Some are infected with rabies, this problem will be discussed and the possibility of securing a trapper to handle the problem will be discussed.

Program chairman, Jerome Duffie will show an interesting film which he has been trying to secure for some time. The title, "The Great Land of Alaska," in sound and color. The public is invited and ladies are urged to attend.

THE 4-COLUMN PRINTING PLATE ABOVE WAS ENGRAVED yesterday from a Polaroid print 3 1/2-inch wide — marking the introduction of Fairchild Graphic Equipment's newest electronic engraver, the Illustrator, of which Hope Star has obtained the first in Arkansas.

left, W. W. Parker of Mt. Pleasant, Texas, Fairchild's customer engineer for maintenance; and Clarence Chapman of Jackson, Miss., Fairchild sales engineer.

THE NEW ILLUSTRATOR GOES INTO SERVICE TODAY exactly three years from the date The Star introduced electronic engraving to Hope with the small Fairchild model, the Cadet, a bench model shown at left in picture. Sherman Fairchild of New York, head of the many Fairchild aviation and electronics enterprises, is a personal friend of Paul W. Klipsch of Hope, and wrote The Star a personal letter February 4, 1957, on our installation of the Cadet.

WHILE THE CADET LOOKS SMALL BESIDE THE NEW ILLUSTRATOR still the old model is a mighty machine. In three years it has produced 114,240 square inches of engravings, the equivalent of 348 newspaper pages. It engraved all the football, basketball, and banquet pictures you have seen in Hope Star the last three years, including yesterday's Chamber of Commerce banquet photos — until the Illustrator took over today.

INSTALLATION OF THE ILLUSTRATOR IS PART OF HOPE Star's expansion plans for 1960. The new machine will produce a larger plate, 5 columns wide by 8 inches deep, compared to 4 columns by 6 inches deep for the old machine. And its great feature is that it will enlarge Polaroid pictures to 4 columns, giving greater detail in group photos. The monthly lease charge on the Illustrator is $199, compared with $47 for the old Cadet. The 85-line screen and printing quality of plates turned out by the two machines is identical, but the enlarging feature of the Illustrator is something the newspaper business has been crying for a number of years.

Train Hits a Truck, Local Man Injured

Odell Luck was injured about 7:30 last night when the truck which he was driving was hit by a Frisco train at the North Highway Street crossing on Highway No. 4, North.

Mr. Luck suffered cuts on his head and a leg injury. He was taken to a local hospital for treatment.

Chief Jack Brown and Officers Rowe and Rothwell made the investigation. The truck Mr. Luck was driving, owned by Gunter Lumber Co., was badly damaged.

Arkansas 2nd in Broiler Production

ATLANTA (AP)—Arkansas was second only to Georgia in production of broilers last year, according to U.S. Department of Agriculture report.

Arkansas, Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama showed sharp production increases over 1958, the department said in a preliminary study.

Arkansas produced 163,997,000 birds, compared by 303,031,000 produced by the mammoth Georgia industry. Other leading states were Alabama 134,221,000, North Carolina 127,490,000, Texas 100,058,000 and Mississippi 107,469,000.

Average price in the 22 states covered by the report was 15.9 cents per pound, a drop of 2.4 cents from 1958. Total crop production was up four per cent, or about six million birds.

The present Presbyterians will enter the contest with an advantage of a larger average attendance, 45 as compared with 36 for the Hope class. This however, does not worry Emory Thompson, captain for the Hope contest.

Beginning this Sunday each person attending the men's classes in either Hope or Prescott will be credited with one point. If he returns the following Sunday his attendance will be worth two points and three points on the next Sunday. This continues until Easter Sunday when a member's attendance will be worth 11 points.

Washington (AP)—An $867,000 post office-federal building for Camden, Ark., was among 64 federal construction projects approved yesterday by the Senate Public Works Committee.

Also on the list was a $15,651,000 court house-federal office building for Memphis.

The projects are subject to approval by the House Public Works Committee. Then appropriations committees in both houses will be asked to recommend funds for construction.

Breakfast to Start Church Contest

The Hope Presbyterians will launch their attendance contest with the Prescott Presbyterians with a free breakfast this Sunday morning. The contest between the Men's Sunday School Classes of the two churches will run for 11 weeks closing on Easter Sunday, April 17.

All men of the local Presbyterian Church and their guests are invited to attend this breakfast, according to Franklin McLarty and William Duckett, co-chairmen in charge of this event. Ham and eggs will be served to all who come between the hours of 8:30 and 9:30 a.m.

Judge James Pilkinton and Dorsey McRae traveled to Prescott last Sunday to challenge the Prescott Presbyterians. While they were in Prescott three members of the Prescott Church were in Hope accepting the challenge. They were Duncen McRae, J. H. Demis and Bruce Stewart. Mr. McRae, the spokesman, warned the local Presbyterians that the Prescott men expected to win the contest and wished to be served steak and not chicken at the winner's banquet.

Beginning this Sunday each person attending the men's classes in either Hope or Prescott will be credited with one point. If he returns the following Sunday his attendance will be worth two points and three points on the next Sunday. This continues until Easter Sunday when a member's attendance will be worth 11 points.

Border Violence Shifts in Middle East Crisis

JERUSALEM (AP)—Border violence between the Syrians and Israelis shifted north of the Sea of Galilee today, when a new exchange of fire developed between units of both countries.

An Israeli military spokesman announced: "At 12:30 p. m. fire opened from Syrian strongholds on an Israeli patrol near the Shear Yashuv settlement. The fire was returned. One of the patrol was slightly wounded."

It was understood the wounded man was a border policeman. He was the second Israeli wounded in frontier strife today.

Earlier the Israelis claimed one of their policemen was wounded by Syrian gunfire 25 miles to the south in the demilitarized zone near the south shore of the Sea of Galilee. He said the fire was not returned and there was no further shooting in that area, where the border crisis of the past week has been centered.

The Syrians claimed earlier all was quiet.

In Jerusalem, a U. N. spokesman was optimistic that Syria and Israel would meet in the Mixed Armistice Commission, dormant since 1957 when the Israelis refused to participate.

"It seems we're on the way to such a meeting," said U. N. spokesman Albert Grand.

Damascus newspapers said Arab villagers in the Tawfik area, who fled artillery and tank fighting there Monday, had moved back to resume their farming.

Israel charged that Syrian troops armed with automatic rifles and mortars fired on an Israeli settlement southeast of the Sea of Galilee Wednesday night and wounded a guardsman.

There was no immediate confirmation of the report.

(Both the United Arab Republic and Israel accused each other of aggression in complaints it filed with the U. N. Security Council in New York Wednesday night. Neither requested immediate council action, however.)

(The U. A. R. said Israeli troops were massing in a move to occupy the zone. Israel said "Syrian" acts of aggression in the zone were aimed at giving Syria control over the area and represented another step in a U. A. R. "policy of active belligerency towards Israel.")

A member of the Israeli-Syrian Mixed Armistice Commission in Jerusalem said neither the U. A. R. nor Israel has responded to Tuesday's withdrawal requests.

An Israeli spokesman Wednesday denied the existence of any Israeli forces in the zone, where fighting broke out last Friday.

The flareup in shooting was reported by the Israeli army a few hours after the U. A. R. list (Syrian) army announced a short skirmish with Israeli patrols during a heavy rain.

The Damascus report said Syrian outposts fired on a five-man Israeli patrol approaching one Syrian position and hit "almost all of them."

The U. A. R. spokesman said other Israeli troops then opened fire on the Syrian positions. "Possibly to cover the operation of dragging away their killed or wounded patrolmen."

Backstage Civil Rights Battle Now in Open

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee, starting public hearings, brings into the open today a backstage battle over sending a civil rights bill to the House floor.

Prospeers are that the committee will clear the measure for amendments. Numerous attempts to change the relatively mild bill are expected.

But opponents of civil rights legislation, who have helped keep the measure bottled up in committee since last August, feel they have accomplished much of their purpose.

The House is not likely to have a chance to pass the bill by Feb. 15, when the Senate is committed to start consideration of the same subject.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had hoped the House would pass a bill before Feb. 15, and some House leaders had planned it that way.

Without a House bill with which to work, Johnson's job will be more difficult and he may have to resort to parliamentary maneuvering which could produce a long delay.

For that reason the rules committee, under control of Republicans and Southern Democrats, isn't likely to expedite the hearings starting today.

Behind the maneuvering is the desire of some House Republicans to do nothing that might enhance Johnson's prestige as a leader and the dissatisfaction of many Southern Democrats with Johnson's active role in getting a civil rights bill enacted in 1957.

Johnson, who is a potential aspirant for the Democratic presidential nomination, has promised passage of what he calls a meaningful civil rights bill this year.

He engineered to passage the 1957 law which was the first major law on the subject since reconstruction days.

The House bill, as approved by the judiciary committee, would make it a federal crime to assist by force or threats school integration orders of federal courts.

Highway 67 Most Traveled in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The busiest segment of highway in Arkansas is at the foot of the Memphis-Arkansas bridge where U. S. Highways 61, 63, 64, 70 and 79 enter the state. More than 9,364,000 vehicles passed there during 1959.

The most traveled highway across the state is U. S. 67 with a peak daily average of 11,900 vehicles near the Little Rock Air Base and a low of 2,800 cars a day between Pochontus and Corning.

These and other traffic facts are shown on the state Highway Department's new traffic volume map.

The daily average traffic count at the Memphis-Arkansas bridge is 25,000 cars. Second is the 23,400 vehicles a day which pass over U. S. 67-70 at the southwest corner of Little Rock.

U. S. 70-79 west of West Memphis carries 15,000 vehicles a day. U. S. 64-71 between Fort Smith and Van Buren 14,800 and state Highway 5 south of Little Rock has 12,000.

U. S. 70 declines from the 13,000 near West Memphis to only 3,000 daily between Glenwood and Dierks. On U. S. 65 the highest is 4,400 at North Little Rock and the lowest 1,100 at points in Van Buren and Seary counties.

The State Class B Senior boys tournament will be held in Jones Field House here March 15-17.

$10 Million Factory Working 1,500 to Locate at Ft. Smith

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval B. Faubus said today that a $10-million dollar factory of Borg-Warner's Norge Division will locate at Fort Smith.

The plant will manufacture gas refrigerators and other gas appliances and will employ from 1,600 to 2,000 persons, the governor said.

The plant will be situated on 14 acres in south Fort Smith and will include one million square feet of floor space.

Faubus released a statement from Judson S. Sayre president of the Norge Division, in which Sayre said that Fort Smith had been selected as the plant site "after careful analysis and consideration."

Sayre's statement gave the figures on cost, floor space and employees.

It said the plant will be used to manufacture Norge's new gas refrigerators and other gas appliances, together with products being developed; also to build and fabricate more appliance components.

There was no definite announcement when construction would start or when the plant might be in operation.

But Faubus said he was informed that the plant "already has been designed down to the last machine, that specifications are ready for bidding and that construction work will begin in a relatively short time."

The plant site is known at Fort Smith as the old powder mill property.

The property, near the southern city limits, recently was purchased by Norge from the Pritchard railroad.

Faubus said that he worked personally with Norge officials and others concerned in negotiations for the plant.

"Because of certain confidences involved, I could not disclose to the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission details of what was taking place," he said.

Faubus said that after he learned that Norge might locate in Fort Smith he became "without design, the co-ordinator for the negotiations and the entire project."

"The governor didn't say so specifically and neither did I say so in his statement, but apparently no community financing—such as is possible under Arkansas' industrialization program—is contemplated."

Faubus did say that "Borg-Warner is doing everything on its own."

At another point, he said the company had "asked for no concession as to plant construction or location."

Faubus announced the Norge decision at a news conference.

He handed out a prepared statement of some 60 words—this in addition to the brief statement from Sayre—and then answered reporters' questions.

In the statement Faubus praised co-operation he said he had gotten from the Fort Smith area.

"A great many people in Sebastian County assisted me, doing so without any thought of reward or recognition," he said.

"Many of them provided me confidential data without question and with no idea of what uses it might be put to. They expressed, directly and indirectly, certain confidences in me and my judgment for which I am grateful and humble."

A reporter asked Faubus about a possible connection between the new plant and W. R. (Witt) Stephens, who is chairman of the board of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. and whose interests own the Fort Smith Gas Co.

Faubus replied that all gas companies in the area would benefit from the new industry.

Senate Studies New Bill to Aid Nation's Schools

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today takes up a new Democratic proposal to boost the size of the school-aid bill after a dramatic night session in which Vice President Richard M. Nixon helped kill one such measure.

The newest proposal, by Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.), would provide 880 million dollars a year for four years in federal grants for both school construction and teacher salary aid.

The defeated plan, by Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Ind.), would have provided $1,100,000,000 a year in definitely for those purposes.

Senate leaders expressed hope that action on the school aid proposals can be completed by tonight.

The Senate held its longest session of the year—12½ hours—on the education bill Wednesday but packed most of the excitement into the last hour.

In that period, after prolonged debate, the senators defeated Clark's proposal by a 44-44 tie vote.

Nixon could have broken this tie and put over the proposal, but he did not do so, presumably because he opposed it. The Eisenhower administration is heavily against any broad system of grants in this field.

But then the Democrats maneuvered quickly to get the vice president on record on the issue.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) one of Nixon's political opponents in the 1960 presidential election, moved to reconsider the 44-44 vote in an effort to change the result.

Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) stepped in with a motion to table, and thus kill Johnson's proposal.

Dirksen's motion at first appeared solid, but Nixon cast his vote in favor of it, tabling reconsideration 45-44. This had the effect of killing any chance to revive Clark's amendment.

Dirksen said he would offer some time today the administration's education bill but it appeared to have little chance of success.

Under it, the federal government would undertake to pay over the next 30 years about $2,200,000,000 covering one-half of the principal and interest charges on three billion dollars worth of school construction bonds to be issued in the next five years.

Six Persons Die in a Plane Crash

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — A fuel-laden jet tanker plane spun out of control on takeoff from Walker Air Force Base Wednesday. It crashed into two sister ships, some parked cars and a hangar, killing six men.

Two other men were missing. The Air Force planned to sift the ashes of the hangar today in another search for bodies.

Five of the dead were aboard the four-engine KC135. They were S. Sgt. George W. Short, Bell Gardens, Calif.; 1st Lt. James J. Muller, Woodbury, N.J.; Maj. James F. Kelleher, Geneva, N.Y.; Maj. James W. McCormick, Homer City, Pa.; and Maj. William L. Burke, 40, of Flint, Mich., the instructor-pilot.

Identities of the sixth dead man, and the two missing men, were withheld until next of kin are notified.

Flames which engulfed the three 4½ million dollar tankers were fed by tons of jet fuel, triggered by exploding magnesium flares.

Chapter XXII

We reached the canal and crossed the bridge. It was not far down the towpath to the basin and the little Ann. The huge body of a char-las sat on the after rail and he was puffing placidly on his pipe. His big blue eyes above his bristling golden whiskers did not seem to see us, but as we came abreast he lifted his voice in a low growl.

"Woman!" he shouted so it could be heard down the reaches of the canal. "they've come!"

With which he reached down and swung Lassin aboard as if she had no more weight than a feather and held her aloft.

"If," she said contentedly, "I could wade through your beard I'd give you a big kiss."

"Aim for my nose," Zach said deliberately. "My mouth's just underneath it."

It was warm and cozy in the cabin, and there was the pleasant odor of baking and maple burning in the cookstove. One could not imagine a higher state of cleanliness and Maw Whirlright was as neat as the crew-room, with hair lightly combed and twisted into a bun on top of her head.

"Ye look right peart, darlin', what with the frost on your cheeks," she said comfortably.

couldn't stand to see him kill mother."

Authorities said the girl fired a .22 caliber rifle as Tate was choking Mrs. Tate.

Patsy, a junior at Oak High School, is a candidate for valedictorian.

"So," said Zach, "we come by the knowledge that they want't jest a-travelin' 'n' sellin' their remedies 'n' tendin' to their other-normal business, like pickin' pockets. But they was seekin' somebody."

"I think I know," I said. "A man who was strangled and put in our barn."

Zach shook his head. "That hadn't happened yet," he said. "Nay! 'Twasn't that murdered man they was aseekin'! From what we pieced together, here 'n' there, we calculated it was a female. We kind of come to the conclusion she jumped ship down in Pennsylvania 'n' gobbled up all the money was in the box. Quite a sum they'd took in durin' a favorable season."

"After that," Zach's woman said, "seems like they couldn't hold the show together."

"Some performers skeddaddled," said Zach. A knife thrown artist 'n' another they called the Dook.

"Who," I told him, "was the murdered man we found in our barn?"

"Now tell!" Zach exclaimed.

"Them," said Zach's woman, "that live by the sword shall die by the sword."

"'Twasn't a sword that killed him, woman," Zach said.

"Ye was a mind to get our advice about suthin'," said Maw.

She rose and lifted the pot from the stove and poured its aromatic contents into four cups. From the cupboard she took a great plate of ginger cookies and fat, sugared white cookies.

"Grown' children," she said, "should eat frequent."

Lassie and I moved up to the table. It was growing dark and outside could be heard the whistling of a northwest wind which was likely to bring snow. The Lizzie Ann was motionless, not stirred by the gale, because the thickening ice held her firmly.

While we munched cookies and drank, scolding tea there was no conversation, just comfort and companionship. Then there came the sudden tramping of heavy feet on the deck above and a rasping voice called down the hatchway. "You, Applegate! If you're down there, come up!"

Zach stood up, his big blue eyes narrowing.

"Who be you," he asked in his great voice, "and what's wanted?"

"We want Applegate," said the same unpleasant voice.

Zach climbed through the opening and stood on deck. I followed him and stood at his side. Confronting up were eight onto a dozen men, and in the twilight I recognized them as members of the Umatilla Indian patrol-medicine troupe. Some were performers, others teamsters or laborers of some sort. But tall, handsome Gideon Weeks was not among them.

"What," I asked, "are you doing in town yet? What do you want

Jury to Hear Report on Tax Collector

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The full Garland County Grand Jury met today, apparently to hear a report from its law enforcement committee which has been investigating operations of the tax collector's office.

The committee finished a three-day probe yesterday. Among the final day witnesses was Ray Owen, who resigned as collector effective Jan. 31. Owen said ill health forced him to quit.

Witnesses subpoenaed to testify today included: Henry Murphy, a deputy tax collector; Curtis Bell, a part-time employee in the collector's office; County Judge H. C. Warren and Raymond Ledwidge, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Co.

Owen met with the committee for more than three hours. He had been summoned to appear last Monday but was out of town.

Other witnesses yesterday included former County Judge J. M. Lowrey, former County Clerk Roy Ruff, and Odell Moody, an auditor from the state comptroller's office who has been checking Garland County records, including those from the collector's office, for the past two weeks.

Testimony given before the grand jury is not made public.

First 1960 Polio Case Reported

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas first polio case of 1960 has been reported to the state Health Department.

The department said the victim was a Clifton County five-year-old who contracted a non-paralytic type. The child had received three Salk shots.

During the first month of 1959, seven cases were reported. The total for the year climbed to 321, highest since discovery of the vaccine.

"And what," I demanded, "did I do to Gideon Weeks?"

"You wrung his neck!" yelled the man beside the pick-pocket, and he leaped for me.

Diamond at Murfreesboro Worth $6,000

MURFREESBORO, Ark. (AP)—A Michigan man has decided to name the 6.50-carat golden canary diamond he found here for television entertainer Garry Moore.

Niels Bach, 25 of Ludington, said he wouldn't have stopped to hunt for diamonds if it hadn't been for Moore's "I've Got a Secret" television program.

He did stop and as a result he's the 75 per cent owner of a diamond which may be worth up to $10,000.

And the stone is now the Garry Moore diamond.

Bach saw Howard A. Millar, operator of the Crater of Diamonds here, when the latter appeared on the television program.

Bach was headed for San Bernardino, Calif., to visit his fiancée, Miss Carolyn Montgen — and to give her a diamond engagement ring—when he stopped to hunt for diamonds at the Crater of Diamonds, operated as a tourist attraction.

He and Millar have agreed to send the diamond to New York for appraisal.

After the appraisal Bach will pay Millar the 25 per cent royalty. The latter collects on any stones of five carats or more. Then the gem will be Bach's.

Bach said he hadn't decided what to do with the diamond out added. "I think it will stay in the family."

Millar estimated the stone is worth about $6,000 uncut and 8,000 to $10,000 cut.

Education Bill to Surpass Ike's Aims

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Various proposals for federal aid to education came up for Senate debate today amid indications any bill passed will go far beyond what President Eisenhower wants.

The long-argued subject of federal school aid may provide one of the thorny issues of the 1960 election-year session.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) said he hopes a school bill can be passed by the week end.

If it does not get through by next Tuesday, there will be a long delay on it. Republicans began leaving town that day for Lincoln Day speeches under an agreement no major legislation will be considered during their absence.

The following Monday, Feb. 15, has been set down for the state of lengthy debate on civil rights. Officially before the Senate is a bill by Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich) to provide 500 million dollars a year in federal grants to the states over the next two years for school construction.

Numerous amendments or substitutes are expected to be offered, however, some to broaden the bill and others to cut down sharply its impact on the federal budget.

Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) said after a he believed the President would look with disfavor on any broad grant bill.

Democrats say they believe it quite likely Eisenhower will veto any measure they get through, but insist this is no reason not to press forward.

McNamara said the administration itself has admitted the need for classrooms is not being met. He quoted Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming as fixing the shortage at 143,200 rooms in 1957, and a conceding this had been cut only by 10,800 rooms since then.

Dirksen said he would offer the administration's school bill during the debate.

Under it, the government would their families and friends.

DOROTHY DIX

Accepts Presents, Now Would Call Quits

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I have been going with a man in our office two years. I told him I would marry him but always changed my mind when the time came. He has given me furniture, clothes and jewelry.

I have two children from a previous marriage. He does all he can for them. He takes us where we want to go. I have gone all the way, if you know what I mean. Now I don't want his friendship but don't know how to tell him.

I know I have done wrong but how does one get out of this fix. Can he take the things back he has already given us? — Mixed Up

Dear Mixed Up: Having been married and divorced, you know your way about. Since both you and the man went into this relationship with your eyes open, he shouldn't be too hurt at your reaction. Tell him the truth and return his gifts.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
I am 14 and in the ninth grade. Most of the girls go out except me. My parents only let me go to my school dances. Our school dances let out at 10:30. My mother expects me to get home at 11 o'clock. I live far from school. The other kids stop for a soda. I don't like to walk home alone so I have a soda too, which makes me late. My mother and father yell. My girl friend calls me a party pooper.

When my sister was my age she could go any place. She is now 18 and stays out till 12 o'clock. I don't think my parents like me any more. Do you think they are being too strict? — Very Lonesome Girl

Dear Very Lonesome Girl: Of course you want to go to parties and stop for sodas at the corner drugstore but maybe you're prettier than the other girls, or less able to look out for yourself. At any rate your parents probably have a very sound reason for posting a curfew. However, they never should yell at you. Tell them I said so.

Dear Dorothy Dix:
My boy friend and I plan to marry in June. We are afraid to tell Mother and Dad because I am in business college and they want me to get a job and help out at home. I will be 18 in April.

We would like to announce our engagement but are afraid my mother and Dad would not agree to our being married, although they both like my boy friend. How should we tell them? His parents are all for us getting married. Could you help us? — C. S.

Dear C. S.: Tell your parents the truth. But how in all conscience can you marry without repaying them the money spent putting you through business college? Your lack of gratitude toward your father and mother makes me wonder what, aside from youth, you bring to your future husband. Irresponsibility and selfishness have wrecked many a marriage.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

50 Convicts Get Their Paroles

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fifty convicts, including two men sentenced for second degree murder, were paroled yesterday by the state Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Augusta Kibbler, 47, and Julius Walker, 38, both Negroes, were paroled from the murder convictions.

Kibbler was sentenced to 10 years on Oct. 2, 1956, for the fatal shooting of Archie Pittman in Jefferson County.

Walker drew a six year sentence to pay carrying charges on as much as 2 1/2 billion dollars worth of long-term school bonds issued by needy school districts. The immediate cost to the federal government would be slight.

This proposal appears to have slight chance of adoption.

Past Catches Up With the Mother of 4

GARDENA, Calif. (AP)—Irene Marie Robbins knew there'd be a knock on her door someday.

It came Wednesday.

She opened the door and told the sheriff's deputies outside: "I know who you are. I am Ruth Crum. I lived in fear and terror all these years. In a way, I am glad it's over."

With those words, the 16 year old Mrs. Robbins' life started crumbling.

To her neighbors, Mrs. Robbins, 45, is the wife of accountant Franklin L. Robbins, the mother of four children and a leader in school and community affairs.

But authorities in Cook County, Ill., know her as an ex-convict who violated her parole. She said she never told her husband about her past.

In 1938, police said, Ruth Crum sat in a car in Havana, Ill., while a male companion committed a burglary. She pleaded guilty to the charge although she maintained she didn't know the man's intentions when he left the auto.

After three years in a reformatory, she tried to make a new life by hiding her past. Authorities said she violated her parole by getting married and leaving Illinois. She was traced through fingerprints taken here last New Year's Day after she was involved in an auto accident and held for investigation.

"I loved my husband but I feared to tell him about my past," she said.

"I always brooded over this problem. I turned to religion and told my troubles to my spiritual adviser. He assured me I had paid my debt to society and that there was no need to tell my husband or any of our children as they began to grow up.

"I always wanted to tell," Wednesday she phoned her husband and told him: "Frank, you'd better come home — my past just caught up with me."

She was arraigned later on a fugitive charge. An attorney said he'll ask California Gov. Edmund G. Brown to refuse Illinois' extradition request.

Her husband said he would stand by her.

"My wife obviously has been a good citizen these last 18 years," he said, "or her past would have come to light before this."

"Technically, she was in error but morally she has stayed within the boundaries of good citizen ship."

Hope to Host State Class B Meet

Meet Set Here March 1-5 in School Gym

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Athletic Assn., has decided to hold its state basketball tournament here in the school gym.

But the plan, talked about for several years, won't be tried until 1961. The AAA's executive committee decided yesterday to continue assigning tournaments by bids this year.

Blytheville was high bidder for the Class AAA-AA meet. Trumann got the Class A event for the second straight year, and Hope was successful in its quest for the Class B tourney.

Manila will host the Class A girls and Greenbrier the Class B districts.

Snow Greet the Olympic Arrivals

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Fresh snow in the Sierra today greets the first large foreign contingent arriving for the Winter Olympic Games.

Seventy-three persons, from Italy, Austria, France and Switzerland, were due to arrive by charter airliner at Reno.

Wednesday's all-day snowfall left an estimated foot of new snow in the valley.

In Newport (Class AAA), Marianna (Class A) and Marmaduke (Class B).

Blytheville guaranteed $9,700 in gate receipts to get the top attractions which pits Big Nine Conference teams against the cream of the Class AA crop. Blytheville, which now has No. 2 schoolboy team in the state, also will pay state taxes on all admissions.

Trumann offered total gate receipts plus a bonus of $1,601 to get the Class A tournament and Hope put up total receipts plus $1,100. Newport offered a flat guarantee of $1,500 for the two-day Class AAA junior event.

Other successful bidders guaranteed only total receipts.

Host schools pay tournament expenses.

All tournament income goes into the AAA's operating fund. The organization will gamble next year on the proposition that the tournament festival will produce more revenue than individual meets.

Affected will be the three senior boys events. Exact plans remain to be worked out, but the festival will be held in Little Rock's 6,000-seat Barton Coliseum and all games probably will be played within one week.

Cool Cats in Overtime Cage Victory

On a last second lay up by David Billings and a free throw by Bobby McGill, Copeland's Cool Cats squeezed past a much improved Hope Auto team 14 to 11 in the second overtime.

The Dirt Dobbers, who trailed the entire game caught on fire in the final seconds on field goals by John Andrews and Richard Turner to tie the score at 9 each at the end of regulation play. The first overtime ended at 11 all with the Cool Cats jumping to a 3 point lead in the final extra period. Andrews was high for the Dirt Dobbers with 7 points. Richard Turner had 4. Dick Willis led the winners with 6 followed by Billings with 5.

In the second game, Ronnie Ingram dropped in 9 points to lead Gulf's Bo-Diddies to a 17 to 8 decision over Owens' Hot Rods. Paul Guevin had 4 for the Gulf team with Fred Ellis and Ronnie Phillips getting 2 each. Stanley Parris led the losers with 4 while Wren and Byrston had 2 each.

The Little Leaguers play on Saturday afternoons at 2 at Jones Field House. Games are played in 4 quarters of 5 minutes each and boys in the 5th, 6th and 7th grades are eligible. This week's games will feature Gulf's Bo-Diddies vs Copeland's Cool Cats while Owens' Hot Rods take on Ford's Dirt Dobbers.

Porkers May Lose Coach Matthews

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas may lose the crack assistant football coach Frank Broyles lured away from the high school ranks two years ago.

Wilson Matthews, who joined the Razorbacks from Little Rock Central High, talked yesterday in Baton Rouge with Paul Dietzel, head coach at Louisiana State.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Driving nonstop and averaging just over 25 miles an hour, M. F. Thomas of Corona Del Mar, Calif., got 51.281 miles on one gallon in economy tests at the Daytona International Speedway. He drove a Rambler American.

Bill Stroppe of Long Beach, Calif., did the next best in the three-day tests ending Wednesday. He got 44.614 miles a gallon in a Ford Falcon.

SMU Licks TCU; Porks Play the Mustangs Next

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little Max Williams, who wasn't supposed to play much if at all, led Southern Methodist to a 79-73 victory over Texas Christian Wednesday night and it lightened up the Southwest Conference basketball race like a wet bathtub.

The Methodists surged into a first place with Texas A&M and it set up a Saturday schedule that could produce a way deadlock for the lead.

A&M and SMU have 4-1 records while Arkansas, Texas and Texas Tech are 3-2. Saturday the Aggies play Tech at College Station. Arkansas meets Southern Methodist at Fayetteville. Texas Christian journeys to Austin in battle Texas and Baylor and Rice clash at Houston.

Texas Tech, Arkansas and Texas victories would make all five of the teams read 4-2.

Williams, the peppery playmaker of SMU, had been worrying about an ankle sprain and it was doubtful that he could do more than spot duty. But the little fellow went 35 minutes and his seven field goals in the last half brought Southern Methodist to the victory.

Four Methodists scored in double figures, with Williams making 10 and Jan Loudmire 18. Tommy Meacham led TCU with 20 points but didn't get as much help as Williams.

Texas beat North Texas State 89-78 in a non-conference game, putting on a six-minute stall to damage a North Texas State rally. The Eagle fullcourt press brought too many fouls and North Texas faltered after narrowing the Texas margin to six points.

Jim Mudd flipped in 26 points for North Texas State. Jay Arnette led Texas with 21.

N. Carolina Has That Title Look Again

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Frank McGuire's North Carolina Tar Heels have that championship look again as they head into the stretch run in Atlantic Coast Conference basketball.

Playing their first game since Jan. 16 and fortified by the return of Brooklyn's Doug Moe, the Tar Heels whipped Maryland Wednesday night 75-60 to retain their hold on the ACC lead.

It was North Carolina's first victory at Maryland in three years.

In dropping Maryland (4-2) to fourth place behind Wake Forest (7-2) and Duke (5-2), North Carolina ran its winning streak to five and its overall record to 10-3.

Providence (12-3) won its ninth straight, 65-53 over Brown, and Dayton (10-3) ran its streak to eight by whipping Miami of Ohio 72-60.

Southern Methodist pulled into a tie with idle Texas A&M for the Southwest Conference lead by cutting TCU 79-73 and 11th-rated Miami of Florida made it 18-2 with a 74-73 squeaker over Tampa. Toledo (14-2), ranked 12th in the nation, tied Ohio U. for the Mid-American conference lead by cruising past Western Michigan 97-48.

The service academies turned in a sweep, with Air Force whipping Wyoming in overtime 59-54, Army whipping Albright 68-65 and Navy rallying for an 84-72 decision over Temple.

In the first racially-mixed sports event in Louisiana in four years, Loyola of New Orleans beat Chicago Loyola 68-64. Clarence Red and Bud Dawson of Chicago Loyola were the first Negro athletes to appear against whites in Louisiana since fullback Bobby Griener played for Pitt in the 1956 Sugar Bowl football game.

Dietzel is trying to replace his head backfield coach, Bill Peterson, who became head coach at Florida State.

Dietzel said he had reached no agreement with Matthews. Matthews was not available for comment.

Broyles, who hired Matthews immediately after Arkansas hired Broyles as head coach, said the LSU job would be a promotion for Matthews.

Dietzel said he was impressed with Matthews. "We are interested in him and I think he would make an excellent coach," Dietzel said.

Wilkie Greaves Decisions Tiger Jones

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—After 11 years as a pro, rust seems to be gnawing on Tiger Jones — every place but his chin.

In his first fight in seven months the 31-year-old Jones huffed and puffed with a head cold through 10 rounds Wednesday night in his 37th TV ring appearance.

When it was all over in Chicago Stadium, he was a lopsided loser to Canadian middleweight champion Wilkie Greaves.

Greaves, 24, was a 3-5 underdog, perhaps, because Chicago fans remember Jones giving Sugar Ray Robinson one of his worst 10 round pummelings in the same ring five years ago.

But the bustle and two-fisted swarming tactics which Jones has pleased fans over the years appeared missing. Greaves forced the fight throughout despite a badly gashed lip from the sixth round on.

"If it had been anybody but Tiger in there, I would have knocked him out," said Greaves, who several times jolted the old pro with solid lefts to the jaw.

The victory was Greaves' fourth in a row and gives him a 31-11-1 record. He weighed 159½ to Jones' 162.

Under the five-point must system, Greaves was favored all the way — 48-43 by referee Joey White, 48-44 by Judge John Bray, 50-44 by Judge Harold Marovitz and 49-44 by The Associated Press.

Convicted Slayer Is Recaptured

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Milas Jones, a convicted murderer who escaped from the State Hospital Tuesday, has been captured in Garland County.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Miller and Calvin York said they captured Jones on a road near Hot Springs after they got a tip he was in the area. Jones offered no resistance, although he had a 22-inch piece of steel pipe concealed in his coat.

Jones disappeared from the State Hospital's Benton unit Tuesday evening. Hospital officials said he had been a patient since 1945 when he was transferred.

Florida Brothers Ask Tax Refund

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A $225,551 federal income tax refund sought by George and Andrew Florida of Osceola cannot be considered until the brothers have paid all income taxes assessed against them.

This was the government's contention in a brief filed in U.S. District Court in an $11,708,925 income tax suit pending against the Floridas.

In their answer to the suit, the Floridas and 12 firms owned by them contended that, instead of owing taxes, they were entitled to a refund.

Asst. U.S. Atty. James W. Gallman also asked Judge J. G. Smith Henley, yesterday, to deny the Floridas' request for a jury trial. Gallman said the law does not provide for jury trials in cases of this sort.

Doubts That Money Has Been Scarce

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Has money been as scarce and credit as tight as many contend? A couple of doubting Thomases say it hasn't been. And anyway, in the last few weeks it has been easing seasonally.

The chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, which is charged with regulating the supply of cash the banks can lend, points to all the other sources of funds that can be tapped by borrowers.

New York bank economists say the way people use money and their other liquid assets plays a much more important role in making credit tight or easy than the Fed itself does.

The Fed's chairman, William McChesney Martin Jr., points to the expansion of credit and debt last year by 60 billion dollars, which he says isn't peanuts. He says this borrowed money came not from newly created money in the form of bank credit but from a huge volume of funds put up by individuals and corporations.

Higher interest rates brought it into the money market. Economists of the First National City Bank of New York note that "the money supply as commonly defined is less than half what people may conceive as their ready money." Money supply is defined as that actually in circulation plus demand deposits in banks.

And it adds some other factors. One is that "we have been learning how to get more mileage out of our money balances." That means that money has been turning over faster and that less of it has been lying idle.

The bank gives as an example: "Corporate treasurers have worked to achieve better coordination of payments and receipts. The availability of an increasing volume of money-market instruments — Treasury bills, finance company paper, etc., has provided enlarged means for investment of temporary idle funds."

Money turnover speeds up during good times and when interest rates rise. During recessions corporate cash tends to pile up out of inventory cutting and the lack of lure of declining money rates.

As to the money supply itself, the bank holds that it was abnormally inflated during the 1930s depression and World War II. In postwar years this excess money has been drawn into active use and turning over faster, "not only financing more trade but also accommodating wage and price inflation."

Ford Motor Co. Earnings Up

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP)—Ford Motor Co. today reported 1959 earnings of $41,400,000, equal to $8.24 a share, compared with 1958 net income of $116,200,000 or $2.12 a share.

A long absence from film work for her. "I don't think they're ready to accept it," said Joanne with scant concern.

Alfred Hitchcock says his current "Psycho" is his first real horror picture. Only one of his films came close. That was "The Lodger" (1928). "But it was more of a suspense film about whether the man who lived upstairs was really Jack the Ripper."

He has a diabolical scheme for producing a real thriller: "When the picture starts, the audience is sitting in a well-heated theater. Then I would have the manager gradually turn the heat down and start turning the cooling system up. The theater would be frigid at the end."

Walt Disney will have another cartoon feature out late this year, "101 Dalmatians."

"I plan to put out cartoon features every two or three years," said Disney, who once issued them annually. "That's as much as the public wants, and it lets me keep one good crew working all the time."

GAIS ALL CHEER FOR THAT 'SEA SONG' PIE FROM 'NEW SCOTLAND'

It seems rather appropriate that a sea captain's wife should select "Sea Song Pie" as her favorite recipe in the "Bluenose" Province of Nova Scotia.

"And all my Nova Scotia friends agree that 'Sea Song Pie' is an outstanding favorite with women throughout the province," Mrs. R. E. H. Davies says.

Mrs. Davies' husband is master of the Canadian National's new Day of Pundy ferry "Bluenose," which operates between Yarmouth, N. S., and Bar Harbor, Me. Here is how Mrs. Davies makes "Sea Song Pie":

- 1 pound dried salt codfish, flaked large
- 1 cup diced potatoes, raw
- 1 cup chopped onions
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 cup milk
- salt and pepper

Bring salt codfish to a boil in order to freshen it. Then boil for 15 minutes in 3 cups fresh water with potatoes and onions. Drain. Melt butter in double boiler; add flour and mix well, cooking several minutes. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly until thickened. Cook three minutes. Add salt and pepper, fish and potatoes. Divide into six small pie dishes. Cover with crust and bake until golden brown.

Woman Trapped in Wrecked Auto

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A woman was trapped 45 minutes in a wrecked automobile after a wild runaway ride Tuesday night.

Firemen, police, ambulance attendants and bystanders freed Jane Harrison, 35, as gasoline leaked from the tank, posing a fire hazard.

Two other women escaped unaided from the car when it came to a stop on a lawn at the bottom of a hill. As it rolled on its side, Mrs. Harrison's left leg was wedged behind the front seat.

Alma Dean Stroud and Ruby Stroud, her sister-in-law, were on their way to a lodge meeting. They had stopped to pick up Mrs. Harrison. When she got into the back seat, the car took off out of control.

Mrs. Stroud said the brakes failed. All three women were hospitalized.

Holt to Run for Attorney General

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Prosecutor J. Frank Holt of Little Rock today announced as a candidate for attorney general.

He would succeed Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, who is a candidate for governor.

Holt is the first to announce for the attorney general's job.

Last week segregationist attorney Amis Guthridge of Little Rock said he probably would be a candidate for the office if Holt ran.

Guthridge said segregationists were displeased with Holt's attitude in the Little Rock integration controversy.

Guthridge declined immediate comment after Holt announced.

He said he would issue a statement later.

Holt had been considered a probable candidate for attorney general for several months.

Other speculation, however, had him as a possible opponent for Rep. Dale Alford of Little Rock for the Fifth Congressional District seat in the national House.

Holt said several weeks ago he would not seek another term as prosecutor.

He is now finishing his third two-year term in the Sixth Judicial District, composed of Pulaski and Perry Counties.

Holt would be the second of his family to be attorney general.

His older brother, Jack, now a Little Rock lawyer, held the position from 1936 to 1942.

Frank Holt, who is 49, was born at Harrison and is a graduate of the University of Arkansas Law School.

He served in Army counter-intelligence in World War II.

After leaving the service, he became a deputy prosecutor, and later chief deputy, before being elected prosecutor in 1954.

He is married and the father of daughters, 12 and 8.

NBC Acts to 'Clean Up' Various Shows

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. has moved to eliminate extreme violence and leering sex from television shows watched by children.

James A. Stabile, NBC vice president in charge of standards and practices, Tuesday issued a directive to production organizations.

"To show an actor firing bullets into a victim already dead is entirely superfluous, not say more," it said.

"To extend a fist fight into a prolonged beating and to show close-ups of facial injury goes well beyond the needs of establishing conflict, and borders on the sadistic.

"Such extremes of violence will not be used on NBC programs for children."

Stabile said it was all right to show "affection between man and woman—this need to touch one another and, in so doing, to demonstrate love."

But, he said, "in meeting our responsibilities to the family audience we can do without the leer, the brutal sex of the jaw, and the intent to possess as the symbol of power and determination."

Stabile said parents also have a responsibility in determining what their children watch on TV.

Truck Rolls, Family of 5 Die in Flames

FRANKLIN, Ind. (AP)—A panel truck carrying a family of six rolled over and caught fire after a collision Tuesday, and a woman and her four small children died in the flames.

Only the husband and father, Francis H. Rogers, 41, Indianapolis, survived. He suffered third-degree burns trying to save the others.

Dead were Edith Rogers, 33, and the children, Sherrey Gail, 4; Leonard, 2; Donna Marie, 1; and Linda Laverne, 2 months.

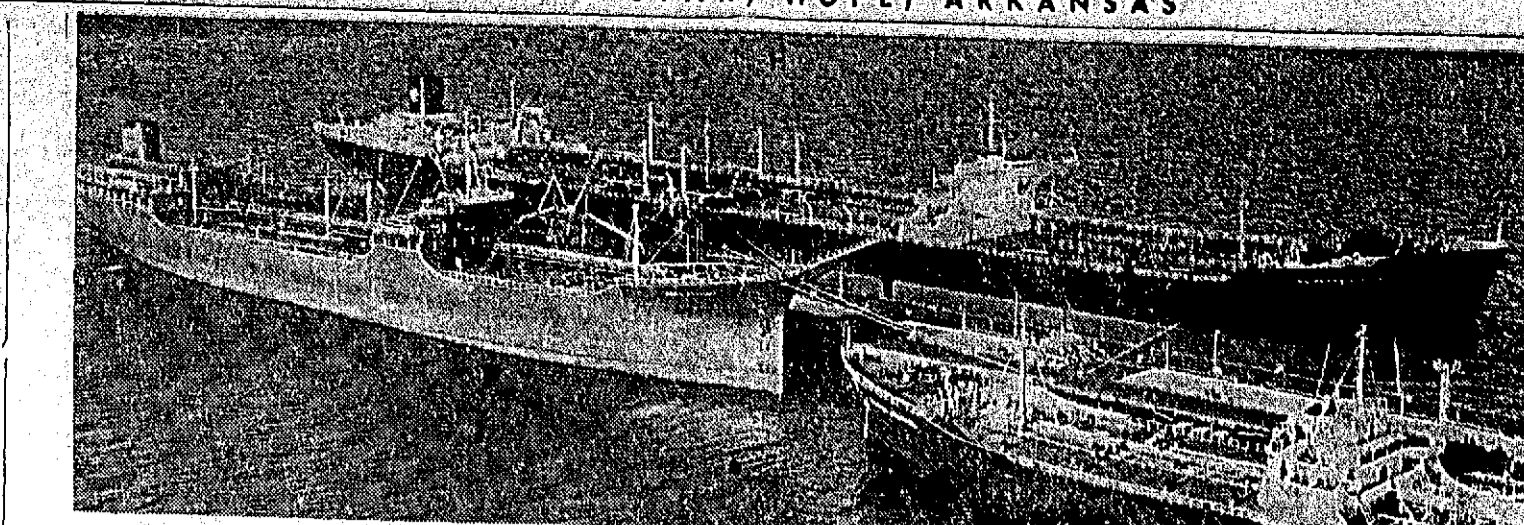

State Trooper John Means said Betty Lou Petro, 33, Nineveh, disregarded a stop sign and struck the panel truck with her car. Mrs. Petro was not injured.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST MERCHANT SHIP—Dwarfing two other tankers in a Kuwait port (tonnage of the one at left is 27,000, the one at right, 38,640) is the world's largest merchant ship—the tanker Universe Apollo. The keel for this 106,410-deadweight-ton ship was laid June 30, 1958, in Japan. Less than five months later, she was launched, and on Jan.

31, 1959, was delivered. Carrying oil between the Mideast and Japan, the ship is 940 feet, 9 inches long. Her breadth is 135 feet (16 feet wider than the Queen Elizabeth). Her draft of 48 feet when loaded compares with 37 feet for the aircraft carrier USS Forrestal. She will do 16 knots loaded and has an around-the-equator cruising range of 27,000 miles.

Lively Facts About Living in Arkansas

By BOB HARING
Associated Press Staff Writer

Boone County Sheriff Doyle Hickman questioned a "short change artist" the other day.

The man—A 49-year-old John Mo., welder—walked freely about his secondary trade after he was arrested in connection with a short-change trick on an Alpena merchant.

"I hit one town for $80 in 20 minutes once," he bragged, and estimated he had made more than $50,000 in the past 10 years with short changes. He boasted he had "earned" as high as $250 in one day.

Sheriff Hickman asked for a "demonstration."

The suspect obliged. He "bought" a pen from the sheriff, giving him a $10 bill and accepting the change—a $5 bill and some $1 bills.

"Wait," he said. "You gave me too much didn't you? Give me that $10 back and I'll give you those ones."

There was a little more talk about it.

When the sheriff counted "his money he was $10 short.

A Stuttgart man cashed a $2 bill for change in England. A boy noticed it and told his mother, who recalled that 36 $2 bills had been taken in a recent burglary at nearby Coz.

The mother told England officers, who passed the word to State Police.

Troopers picked the man up for investigation and found 10 $2 bills in a wallet in his car. Investigators knew he had spent eight bills, making a total of half the number taken in the burglary and indicating a "split."

Going to the man's home, officers found two rolls of silver dollars stuffed in the bedding.

They knew a $100 bill and 31 dollar bills had been taken also. It looked like an open and shut case.

Then the man's friends came to his rescue. He had been collecting $2 bills and silver dollars for a hobby before he returned to Arkansas recently. He was cleared and released.

He dropped by to see Stuttgart Police Chief Harold Lammers and Sheriff Harold Woodson to discuss the incident.

"Say," he asked, "do you want some $2 bills? I want to get rid of 'em. They've caused me enough trouble."

Breakfast Booster

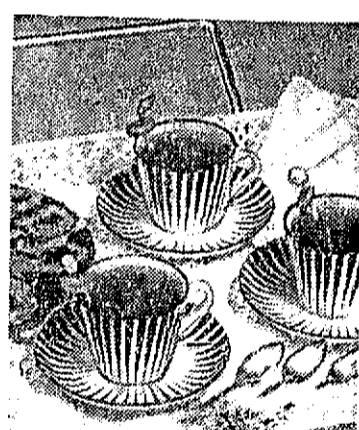

Banana French Toast holds the hidden persuader—a layer of fruit between the appetizing French toast and breakfast. Try a fruit change-about, orange slices or canned fruit. A sprinkling of confectioners' sugar or a spoonful of sirup tops the toast. Serve with crisp bacon, hot sausages or fried ham.

Banana French Toast
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon nutmeg
8 slices enriched bread
1/2 cup shortening
3 medium-sized bananas, sliced

Combine beaten eggs, milk and nutmeg in a shallow bowl. Melt shortening in a skillet. Dip bread slices into egg mixture, turning them to coat both sides. Brown bread on both sides in hot fat. Place a layer of sliced bananas on 4 slices of French toast. Cover bananas with a second slice of French toast. Serve with maple sirup.

Yield: 4 servings—2 slices toast per serving.

Any Time Is V-8 Time!

FROM early morning until late at night... for a snack or first course... V-8 juice is the "just right" beverage for all occasions.

Put a tingle into breakfast with this sparkling juice. Perch a wedge of lime or lemon on edge of each glassful for those who like extra zing. On a cold morning heat the juice for a pleasing chili-chaser. It wakes up appetites for the ham and eggs that follow.

Lunchon guests will love it when you serve hot V-8 as a first course in the living room. It's so warming and peppery flavored. Make it still peppier by simmering with a little curry powder when you heat it.

For snacktime... refreshing and colorful V-8 is a favorite. Fill a tall pitcher with this vegetable juice cocktail, then all can help themselves. Served frosty cold the lively flavor is welcomed by all.

Your dinner table will sparkle aplenty with glasses of hot V-8 juice. Serve with a pat of butter and a green pepper "squirrel." The skillful blend of juices from 8 choice vegetables makes V-8 delicious and nutritious. It's a sure-fire hit... anytime... every-time!

HOT CURRIED V-8
1 can (12 ounces) V-8
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 teaspoons butter

In saucepan, heat V-8 and curry; blend in butter. Makes 3 to 4 servings.

Truck License Sales Increase in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Revenue Department reported today that sale of automobile and truck licenses in Arkansas increased by 46.425 last year.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney gave this breakdown: Passenger car licenses — 474,783 in 1959, 445,715 in 1958.

Truck licenses — 194,780 compared with 184,433.

Trailer licenses — 49,772 compared with 42,765.

Cheney said a total of 719,341 licenses were sold in 1959 against 672,916 the year before.

Would Share A-Weapons With Allies

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the law should be changed to make nuclear weapons available to responsible U.S. allies.

Eisenhower told his news conference he has always been of the belief that this country should not deny to its allies atomic information already possessed by its potential enemy.

The Atomic Energy Act now prohibits divulging certain information to any foreign country. Eisenhower said this law should be made more liberal so that nuclear information could be given to countries classified as competent to contribute substantially to free world defenses.

The President said U.S. allies should not be regarded merely as junior partners without a voice in defense decisions.

Eisenhower noted that under existing law the United States cannot give away nuclear bombs. He went on to say that, since we are allied with other nations in defense, we ought to arm them in the best possible manner to make the free world's defense more secure.

As matters stand, Eisenhower said, this country cannot even give away information that it knows the Soviet Union already has. He added it is hard for him to understand why we do not make this information available.

A reporter asked if Eisenhower intends to pursue efforts to get an effective ban on nuclear testing. The questioner suggested such a ban might prevent the spread of nuclear weaponry to smaller nations.

Eisenhower replied that he certainly is going to keep American representatives in Geneva as long as there is the slightest kind of chance the negotiations there will produce an effective agreement with the Russians banning tests.

If you get real test bans, he said, then the only way other nations could get nuclear weapons would be through sale or transfer by the powers which now hold them.

The President said the probability of the spread of weapons to smaller and other nations increases as the processes of manufacture become simpler and the know-how more widespread.

Chevy Plant Idled by 10,000 Strikers

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—A strike of 10,000 United Auto Workers today shut down the big Chevrolet manufacturing plant here.

The strikers are protesting what they contend is a speedup in the crankshaft department. UAW Local 659 voted to strike Dec. 18 and filed five-day notice of intent to strike last Thursday.

A company spokesman told newsmen that new crankshaft work standards are justified as a result of operating changes in that department and that fewer than 20 employees are involved directly in the dispute.

Ralph E. Frazer, personnel director at the struck plant, said in a statement:

"Several months ago the company changed certain processing methods in the crankshaft grinding department, eliminating part of the grinding time and thus reducing the operating time. As a result, the company set new work-time standards for this particular job. The dispute involves these standards."

YOUTH ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED BY GUN

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy was wounded critically at nearby Mifflott, Okla., last night when a pistol discharged as he was admiring the weapon.

Jerry Thompson, son of Mrs. Nora Thompson of Mifflott, was hospitalized at Fort Smith. Attendants said a slug from the .22 caliber pistol hit him in the side and his condition was critical today.

Constable W. C. Gilliam Jr. of Mifflott said Robert C. Just, 25, a Mifflott garage mechanic was displaying the weapon in a room of the establishment where he works when it discharged.

Gilliam said Just was held on an open charge pending the outcome of the boy's wound.

This Weekend Good Time to Buy Eggs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ham and eggs, bacon and eggs, steak and eggs—just about everything and eggs—quality as bargain meals this weekend.

That's because wholesale egg prices are near 19-year lows and retail quotations respond accordingly. Basically, the situation stems from more output per hen, more hens and fewer eggs eaten per capita.

Price cuts this week range from 2 to 4 cents a dozen over a wide area. Eggs go for 37 to 45 cents a dozen (depending on size) at one chain's New York metropolitan area stores compared with 47 to 57 cents a dozen a year ago this time.

Meat specials at supermarkets and neighborhood groceries are more varied than usual. Top and bottom round roast and steaks are among beef items, while others turn to boneless chuck and ground beef. Pork cuts are about evenly divided between fresh pork and smoked hams.

Occasional frankfurter bargains also are available.

Shrimp still is cheap in the East and Midwest, while Atlantic Coast fish lovers can get bargains on codfish steaks.

Outstanding buys among vegetables are beets, cabbage, car-

Five Killed in California Wreck

WILLIAMS, Calif. (AP) — Five persons were killed and three hurt when their Iowa-licensed pickup truck failed to make a curve, flipped and struck a power pole four miles west of here early today.

The dead were identified as Mrs. James D. Johnson, her month-old son and daughter about 3 of Dow City, Iowa; and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Johnson of Ukiah, Calif.

James Daniel Johnson, 24, driver of the truck, and two other Johnson children, Deborah, 6, and Kenny, 2, were taken to a hospital. They were not believed seriously injured.

The Johnsons were en route from Iowa to Ukiah. The truck was loaded with household goods. All eight persons were thrown out when the truck overturned.

rots, celery, cooking greens (collard, kale, mustard, turnip), escarole, small to medium yellow onions, parsley, potatoes, sweet potatoes and spinach.

Higher are cauliflower, beans, corn, cucumbers, eggplant and tomatoes.

If you crave asparagus—and the budget can stand it, the first shipments from the lower Rio Grande Valley are starting to trickle to market.

Best bets among fruits are Florida, and Western navel oranges, grapefruit and apples.

Scientists Battling the Lamprey

OTTAWA (AP) — Canadian and U.S. scientists feel confident they are winning their battle against the sea lamprey that has been killing off the trout in Lake Superior.

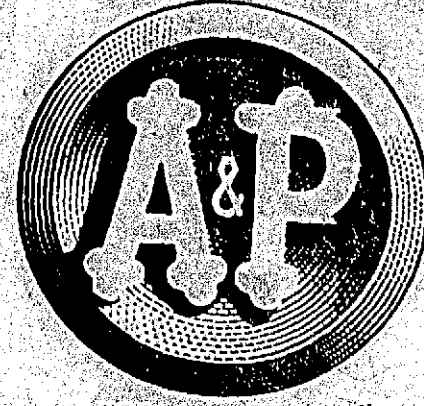

For four years the scientists have been teaming up in a crash program to exterminate Lake Superior's lamprey colony and preserve the trout's last refuge in the five Great Lakes.

Using underwater electric shocks and a powerful spawning ground poison, they have killed millions of the ugly bloodsuckers and now appear to have the upper hand. Ontario, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota are cooperating in the restocking of the lake with hatchery-reared trout yearlings, about 700,000 of them last year.

The scientists of the Great Lakes Fisheries Commission plan this year to use their techniques in Lakes Huron and Michigan, and in Georgian Bay, where the lampreys have virtually finished the trout population.

The lamprey, a primitive, eel-like fish, has been in the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario for centuries. Measuring 1 to 2 feet, it kills by fastening itself to a fish by the pointed teeth lining its circular mouth.
